

NEW HANOVER COUNTY
COOPERATIVE EXTENSION ADVISORY COUNCIL

Members: 16

Terms of Office: Initial terms shall commence December 1, 2017. Terms will be staggered as determined by the Board of Commissioners to serve one-year, two-year, and three-year terms. All appointees will serve in at-large capacities.

Purpose: Cooperative Extension is a partnership between New Hanover County Government and North Carolina's two Land Grant universities – N.C. State in Raleigh and N.C. A&T State in Greensboro. Primary responsibilities include:

1. Provide input and direction for educational programming conducted by Cooperative Extension staff and volunteers in the areas of Consumer and Commercial Horticulture, 4-H Youth Development, Family and Consumer Sciences, and Environmental Education.
2. Serve as an advocate for Cooperative Extension with citizens, community leaders, and elected officials.
3. Participate in and support Cooperative Extension programs and events.
4. Partner with the New Hanover County Friends of the Arboretum, the New Hanover County Master Gardener Association, other agencies, non-profit organizations, and companies to improve/expand facilities and services.

Meetings: Four times yearly, held in auditorium at the New Hanover County Arboretum

Statute or cause creating council: Cooperative Extension Director requested County Commissioners appoint members 1/23/2006. Revised membership structure approved 5/6/2013; 11/20/2017.
